

NORTHWEST BIOTHERAPEUTICS

Job Description

Title: Director, Project Management

Status: Exempt

Reports to: Executive Managers:

Responsibilities:

1. Manage the day-to-day activities of specific projects related to the company's business development and/or clinical activities which may include marketing analysis, manufacturing plans and facilities, clinical trial management.
2. Project management to include but not limited to: development of new space in US and foreign countries, defining future location alternatives, investigation and implementation of new productivity systems, support and coordination of other company programs as needed
3. Manage patent portfolio by interaction with patent attorney's and internal staff
4. Assistance in writing documents, proposals and submissions to various governmental and regulatory agencies.
5. Identify in- & out-licensing opportunities for Company product candidates by initiating proposals, and working with senior management in negotiations and presentations for the acquisition of licensing opportunities and technologies.
6. Works on complex problems where analysis of situations or data requires an in-depth evaluation of various factors.
7. Assist product and process costing and program justification analysis.
8. Significant travel anticipated

Education: BA/BS, MS or Ph.D. (MBA useful) in life sciences; immunology background useful.

Experience: +5 years of experience in the biotechnology industry with increasing responsibilities in project management. Basic understanding of: 1) cell-based therapies, 2) business develop, 3) clinical trial process, 4) general regulatory processes in the US, 5) demonstration of strong research and analytical skills in areas of business, financial, regulatory, and clinical areas, 6) strong and effective written and oral communication skill.

Location: Bethesda, MD

Salary Range: Competitive, dependent upon education and experience; excellent benefits

About Northwest Biotherapeutics: Northwest Biotherapeutics' mission is to become a leading developer and supplier of cost-effective, non-toxic immunotherapies for primary or adjuvant treatment of cancers. We are focusing on those product candidates that allow rapid commercialization to generate return for our stockholders, and that provide the resources required for continued development of potential additional products with longer lead times. We will continue to develop partnerships to commercialize and market our products with the goal of rapid market penetration without diluting our focus on clinical product development.

NORTHWEST BIOTHERAPEUTICS